Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee

MEETING OF 5 DECEMBER 2012

The Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee (ERACCC) was established in 2005 and comprises a diverse range of members representing the interests of a wide range of consumers. The ERACCC exists to provide input to the ERA and to act as an information distribution channel for the ERA for the benefit of Western Australian consumers.

The ERACCC held its fourth and final meeting for the year on 5 December 2012. The following presentations were made at the meeting:

Strategic Energy Initiative, Energy 2031: Pathways for the State's Energy Future – The ERACCC received a presentation on Strategic Energy Initiative, Energy 2031: Pathways for the State's Energy Future from Mr Aden Barker, Public Utilities Office.

2012 State Growth Outlook Study – The ERACCC received a presentation on the 2012 State Growth Outlook Study from member Mr Andrew Winter, Chamber of Minerals and Energy of WA.

Inquiry into Western Australia's Home Indemnity Insurance Arrangements – The ERACCC received a presentation on the inquiry into the Western Australia's Home Indemnity Insurance Arrangements from Mr Bill Scanlan, Assistant Director References, ERA.

The ERACCC also approved the ERACCC's Work Plan for 2013-14, which includes draft forward agendas for all meetings in 2013 and the first meeting of 2014.

More information about ERACCC is available on the ERA website.

The ERACCC will next meet on 6 March 2013.
