Economic Regulation Authority

2010/11 Annual Report

The Economic Regulation Authority today published its 2010/11 Annual Report on the Authority's website.

The report is available in three formats, which cater to differing accessibility requirements. The formats available are:

- an interactive PDF, which has extensive internal linking to other sections of the report, as well as hyperlinks to content on the Authority's website and to external websites;
- an online web browser version, which allows for quick and easy viewing of report sections. This version also features easy-to-use download and print functions; and
- a text version, which is suitable for use with screen reader software applications.
