Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee

MEETING OF 7 DECEMBER 2011

The Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee (ERACCC) was established in 2005 and comprises a diverse range of members representing the interests of a wide range of consumers. The ERACCC exists to provide input to the ERA and to act as an information distribution channel for the ERA for the benefit of Western Australian consumers.

The ERACCC held its fourth meeting of the year on 7 December 2011. The following presentations were made at the meeting:

Western Power Access Arrangement - The ERACCC received a presentation on the revisions that have been proposed by Western Power to their access arrangement (AA3). The ERA published an issues paper in October 2011 and sought public comment on the paper. The ERA will publish their Draft Decision on the proposed revisions in early 2012, on which public submissions will be sought.

ECCC 2011 Review - The ERACCC received a presentation on the current review of the Code of Conduct for the Supply of Electricity to Small Use Customers. The Electricity Code Consultative Committee's Draft Review Report was published on 25 November 2011. The period for public submissions on the Draft Review Report closes on 23 December 2011.

ERA New Strategic Plan - The ERACCC received a presentation on the ERA's new Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan outlines the ERA's purpose, values and strategies to achieve its goals.

Financial Counsellors' Association of WA - The ERACCC received a presentation from Mr Charles Brown on the background and role of the Financial Counsellors' Association of WA.

More information about ERACCC is available on the ERA website.

The ERACCC will next meet on 7 March 2012.
