Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee

NEW MEMBER APPOINTED

The Economic Regulation Authority has appointed a new member to the ERA Consumer Consultative Committee (ERACCC).

Mr Leslie O'Neill has been appointed to the ERACCC in an individual capacity as an indigenous representative.

Mr O'Neill's appointment is in keeping with the ERA's objective to consult with and provide tangible outcomes for all consumers, including indigenous consumers. The appointment is also consistent with the ERACCC Members' Terms of Appointment which provide for participation on the ERACCC by core consumer and community members that are representative of different sectors of the community, particularly including the consumer movement.

A copy of the ERACCC Members' Terms of Appointment are available on the Authority's website.

Mr O'Neill's appointment will expire on 28 February 2014.

Other current members of the ERACCC include:

- Chamber of Minerals and Energy of WA (Inc)
- Financial Counsellors Association of WA
- Pastoralists & Graziers Association of WA (Inc)
- Property Council of Australia (WA)
- WA Council of Social Service
- WA Farmers Federation
- WA Local Government Association

The Department of Commerce and Energy Ombudsman WA are observers on the ERACCC.
