Alinta Sales Pty Ltd (trading as Alinta Energy)

DECISION ON AMENDMENT TO GAS TRADING LICENCE 9

The Economic Regulation Authority has amended Gas Trading Licence 9 (GTL 9). The amendment is to align the record keeping and reporting requirements with the frequency of the billing.

The Authority has previously approved an amendment to Alinta's gas trading licence, allowing Alinta to issue a bill at least once every 110 days instead of the three month period specified in the Compendium of Gas Customer Licence Obligations.

The record keeping and reporting requirements, and the maximum billing interval specified in Alinta's licence now all align with the frequency by which Alinta receives metering data from its distributor.

The amended licence is effective from 23 April 2013 under section 11VA of the Energy Coordination Act 1994.

Copies of the Authority's decision and the amended licence as well as a public submission are available on the Authority's website.
