Proposed Revised Access Arrangement for the Goldfields Gas Pipeline

EXTENSION OF TIME TO MAKE SUBMISSIONS

The Economic Regulation Authority (ERA) has decided to extend the public consultation period for interested parties to respond to Goldfields Gas Transmission Pty Ltd's (GGT) proposed revised access arrangement for the Goldfields Gas Pipeline (GGP).

Interested parties are now invited to make submissions on the GGP Access Arrangement Proposal by 4:00 pm (WST) Monday, 10 November 2014.

The ERA has decided to extend the public consultation period as it will shortly publish an issues paper to assist interested parties in preparing submissions on GGT's proposal. The ERA had originally published a closing date for submissions of 20 October 2014 in its Notice published on 5 September 2014. However, we consider it necessary to allow interested parties enough time to review its issues paper in preparing a submission. Therefore, the ERA has decided to extend the public consultation period by three weeks.

Submissions should be marked to the attention of Tyson Self, Assistant Director, Gas Access.

CONFIDENTIALITY

In general, all submissions from interested parties will be treated as being in the public domain and placed on the ERA's website. Where an interested party wishes to make a submission in confidence, it should clearly indicate the parts of the submission for which confidentiality is claimed, and specify in reasonable detail the basis for the claim.

Notice

The publication of a submission on the ERA's website shall not be taken as indicating that the Authority has knowledge either actual or constructive of the contents of a particular submission and, in particular, whether the submission in whole or part contains information of a confidential nature and no duty of confidence will arise for the ERA.
