Final Determination of Costs for TPI - 2015

PUBLICATION OF REDACTED VERSION OF DOCUMENT

Following a process of consultation with The Pilbara Infrastructure Pty Ltd (TPI) the Economic Regulation Authority (ERA) has published a redacted version of its cost determination pertaining to Brockman Iron's Access Proposal to the TPI network.

TPI requested the redaction of some details from the ERA's final determination before it could be published on the ERA website. After receiving submissions from interested parties the ERA decided that it was appropriate for some details to be redacted.

The redacted final determination is now available on the ERA website.
