Amendments to the REMCo Retail Market Rules

DECISION

The Economic Regulation Authority (ERA) has approved amendments to the Retail Energy Market Company's (REMCo) Retail Market Scheme (Scheme), providing for the operation of the Western Australian Gas Retail Market.

Among other things, the Scheme comprises: the Retail Market Rules (Rules) and the Specification Pack (Spec Pack). The Spec Pack includes a series of documents that define how participants interact with market systems and other participants' systems.

On 30 October 2015, REMCo submitted Rule Change proposals C03/15RS, C04/15S and C05/15R to the ERA for approval.

Rule Change proposal C03/15R proposed to add a note to Retail Market Rule 79 to increase clarity on the Explicit Informed Consent requirements for when a customer moves in to a premises.

Rule Change proposal C04/15S proposed to amend a typographic error in the Spec Pack.

Rule Change proposal C05/15R proposed to update Appendix 1 of the Rules to recognize a new gate point from the interconnection of Parmelia Pipeline to Metro-South Sub-network.

The ERA has approved the amendments to the Retail Market Scheme, which will take effect on 1 January 2016

The ERA's Decision Paper explaining the reasons for the approval are available on the ERA's website.
