Allowable Revenue and Forecast Capital Expenditure Proposal for System Management and Independent Market Operator Functions

PUBLICATION OF SUBMISSION

The Economic Regulation Authority (ERA) has today published a submission received from Alinta Energy in response to the ERA's Issues Papers, published on 30 March 2016. No other submissions were received.

The Issues Papers relate to proposals for allowable revenue and forecast capital expenditure for the period 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2019 submitted by the Independent Market Operator and System Management.

The Gas Services Information Rules (2015) require the ERA to assess and determine allowable revenue and forecast capital expenditure proposed by the Independent Market Operator.

The Wholesale Electricity Market Rules (2015) require the ERA to assess and determine the allowable revenue and forecast capital expenditure proposed by the Independent Market operator and System Management.

The submission received from Alinta Energy is available on the ERA's website.
