Guideline to inform Balancing Market Offers and Decision Document

REPORT AND DECISION DOCUMENT PUBLISHED

The Economic Regulation Authority (ERA) has published the final draft of its Guideline to inform Balancing Market Offers (draft report published as 'Balancing Submissions Guideline') and the supporting decision document. The decision document summarises issues raised through the public consultation process and the ERA's responses.

The ERA is responsible for monitoring compliance with, and investigating potential breaches of the Wholesale Electricity Market Rules. The Guideline is intended to provide guidance on how the ERA interprets the undefined terms in Market Rule 7A.2.17 and on the ERA's current approach to monitoring compliance with this rule.

The report and the decision document are available on the ERA website.
