Code of Conduct for the Supply of Electricity to Small Use Customers Amendment Code 2025

Approved by the Economic Regulation Authority.

1. Citation

This code is the Code of Conduct for the Supply of Electricity to Small Use Customers Amendment Code 2025.

2. Commencement

This code comes into operation as follows —

- (a) clauses 1 and 2 — on the day on which this code is published on the WA legislation website;
- (b) the rest of the code — on 1 September 2025.

3. Code amended

This code amends the Code of Conduct for the Supply of Electricity to Small Use Customers 2022.

4. Clause 3 amended

- (1) In clause 3 delete the definitions of:
appropriately qualified medical practitioner
National Interpreter Symbol
overcharging
undercharging

cl. 4

---

- (2) In clause 3 insert in alphabetical order:

National Interpreter Symbol (with text) means the following symbol —

overcharging, by a retailer or distributor, includes the overcharging of a customer as the result of —

- (a) an error, defect or default for which the retailer or distributor is responsible (including when a meter is found to be defective); or
- (b) the retailer basing a bill or bills on estimated energy data that is greater than the actual value (not being a deemed actual value) of energy used where the actual value is derived from an actual meter reading undertaken by a person employed or appointed by the distributor that passes the validation processes in Appendix 2 of the Metering Code;

undercharging, by a retailer or distributor, includes the undercharging of a customer as the result of —

- (a) an error, defect or default for which the retailer or distributor is responsible (including when a meter is found to be defective); or
- (b) the retailer basing a bill or bills on estimated energy data that is less than the actual value (not being a deemed actual value) of energy used where the actual value is derived from an actual meter reading undertaken by a person employed or appointed by the distributor that passes the validation processes in Appendix 2 of the Metering Code; or

(c) a failure to issue a bill to a customer;

- (3) In clause 3 in the definition of complaint delete “an organisation, related to its” and insert:

a person, related to their

5. Clause 28 amended

Delete clause 28(3) and insert:

- (3) If the energy data is checked and found to be incorrect or the meter is tested and found to be defective, the retailer must use its best endeavours to inform the customer of that fact within 10 business days after the retailer becomes aware of it and, subject to this clause, ask the customer for instructions as to whether the amount of the charge paid by the customer should be credited to —
- (a) the customer’s next bill; or
  - (b) a bank account nominated by the customer.
- (4) If a retailer receives instructions under subclause (3), the retailer must deal with the amount in accordance with the customer’s instructions within 12 business days after receiving the instructions.
- (5) However, if a retailer does not receive instructions under subclause (3) within 5 business days after making the request, the retailer must use reasonable endeavours to credit the amount to the customer’s next bill.
- (6) If the amount is less than $100, the retailer may credit the amount to the customer’s next bill instead of complying with subclause (3).

- (7) Despite subclauses (3) to (6), if the customer owes a debt to the retailer, the retailer may, after giving notice to the customer, use the amount to set off the debt.
- (8) Subclause (7) does not apply if the customer is a customer experiencing financial hardship.
- (9) If there remains an amount in credit after a set-off under subclause (7), the retailer must deal with the amount in accordance with subclauses (3) to (6) (depending on the amount that remains in credit).

6. Part 4 Division 9 inserted

At the end of Part 4 insert:

Division 9 — Prohibition on charging for paper billing

32A. Prohibition on charging for paper billing

A retailer must not charge the following customers any amount of money for the provision of a paper bill —

- (a) customers who are receiving concessions;
- (b) customers experiencing financial hardship;
- (c) vulnerable customers.

7. Clause 43 amended

In clause 43(1):

- (a) in paragraph (b) delete “date.” and insert:
date; and

(b) after paragraph (b) insert:

- (c) whether the customer agrees to the plan applying to future amounts incurred within 6 months after the start of the plan.

8. Clause 59 amended

In clause 59(1) delete “confirmation from an appropriately qualified medical practitioner” and insert:

a medical practitioner confirmation (as defined in clause 82(1A))

9. Clause 66 amended

(1) Delete clause 66(1) and insert:

- (1) This clause applies if a residential pre-payment meter customer informs a retailer that the customer is experiencing difficulties paying for their consumption.

(2) Delete clause 66(4).

10. Clause 69 amended

(1) In clause 69 delete “A retailer” and insert:

- (1) A retailer

cl. 11

---

(2) At the end of clause 69 insert:

- (2) A retailer must give a non-contestable customer, at no charge, the following information at least once every year, even if the customer does not request it —
- (a) the information referred to in subclause (1);
  - (b) information about any other products offered by the retailer and available to the customer.

Note: The heading to clause 69 is to read:

Information about tariffs, fees, charges and products

11. Clause 82 amended

(1) Before clause 82(1) insert:

(1A) In this clause —

medical practitioner confirmation means written confirmation from 1 of the following —

- (a) a medical practitioner, other than a specialist general practitioner, who holds specialist registration in a recognised specialty in the medical profession under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Western Australia);
- (b) a medical practitioner working in —
  - (i) a hospice; or
  - (ii) a specialist department of a hospital; or
  - (iii) a local hospital or rural health service (but only if the relevant supply address is outside the Perth metropolitan area);
- (c) an individual who is registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Western Australia) to practise the medical profession other than as a student (but only if the confirmation is based on a diagnosis or medical report from a medical practitioner referred to in paragraph (a) or (b)).

- (2) In clause 82(1) delete “confirmation from an appropriately qualified medical practitioner” and insert:

a medical practitioner confirmation

12. Clause 84 amended
