Panel of arbitrators for rail access disputes

Update of panel members

The Economic Regulation Authority has updated the panel from which arbitrators may be appointed under section 26(2) of the Railways (Access) Code 2000.

The ERA is required to establish a panel of people who can act as arbitrators in the event of a dispute between an access seeker and a railway owner regarding access to a rail network.

Under the Code, the ERA may include or remove the name of a person from the panel only on recommendation of the Chairman of the Western Australian Chapter of the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia or the Perth Centre for Energy and Resource Arbitration.

The panel of arbitrators can be accessed on the ERA website and is:
