Origin Energy Gas Standard Form Contract

Opportunity for Public Comment

The Economic Regulation Authority today released the Standard Form Contract, proposed by Origin Energy as part of its application for a Gas Trading Licence in Kalbarri, for public consultation.

The consultation period (which must be at least 15 business days under the Authority's public consultation guidelines) closes on 13 June 2007.

Under Section 11WE of the Energy Coordination Act 1994, the Authority must approve the Standard Form Contract setting out the terms and conditions under which the applicant proposes to sell gas before a trading licence can be granted.

The Authority will consider whether the Standard Form Contract meets the requirements of the Energy Coordination (Customer Contracts) Regulations 2004, other relevant legislation and licence conditions.

A copy of Origin Energy's proposed Gas Standard Form Contract is available on the Authority's web site.

Written submissions should be addressed to:

Mr Paul Kelly
Executive Director
Licensing, Monitoring & Customer Protection
Economic Regulation Authority
PO Box 8469
PERTH BC WA 6849

Written submissions must be received no later than 5pm on 13 June 2007.

In general, all submissions from interested parties will be treated as in the public domain and placed on the Authority's web site.

Where an interested party wishes to make a submission in confidence, it should clearly indicate the parts of the submission for which confidentiality is claimed and specify in reasonable detail the basis upon which the claim is made.

The receipt and publication of any submission on the Authority's web site shall not be taken as indicating that the Authority has knowledge, either actual or constructive, of the contents of a particular submission and, in particular, whether the submission in whole or in part contains information of a confidential nature and no duty of confidence will arise for the Authority in these circumstances.
