Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2007/11 Call for Submissions

Under the Disability Services Act 1993, the Economic Regulation Authority is required to develop a Disability Access and Inclusion Plan (DAIP). The DAIP must outline the Authority's strategies to address each of the following desired outcomes:

- 1) People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to access the services of, and any events organised by, a public authority.
- 2) People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to access the buildings and other facilities of a public authority.
- 3) People with disabilities receive information from a public authority in a format that will enable them to access the information as readily as other people are able to access it.
- 4) People with disabilities receive the same level and quality of service from the staff of a public authority as other people receive from the staff of that public authority.
- 5) People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to make complaints to a public authority.
- 6) People with disabilities have the same opportunities as other people to participate in any public consultation by a public authority.

In accordance with the Disability Services Regulations 2004, the Authority is inviting submissions from interested parties on its draft DAIP, which is available on the Authority's web site in the following formats:

- Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2007/11 – Draft – Print Version \(105kB PDF format\)
- Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2007/11 – Draft – Large Print Version \(113kB PDF format\)
- Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2007/11 – Draft – Print Version \(220kB RTF format\)
- Disability Access and Inclusion Plan 2007/11 – Draft – Audio Version \(3.34MB MP3 format\)

The Authority is able to receive submissions in various formats. Please feel free to contact us with any queries in this regard on 08 9213 1900. The closing date for submissions is 4:00 pm WST on 4 July 2007. Submissions can be sent to:

Confidentiality

In general, all submissions from interested parties will be treated as in the public domain and placed on the Authority's web site.

Where an interested party wishes to make a submission in confidence, it should clearly indicate the parts of the submission for which confidentiality is claimed, and specify in reasonable detail the basis upon which the claim is made.

The receipt and publication of any submission on the Authority's web site shall not be taken as indicating that the Authority has knowledge, either actual or constructive, of the contents of a particular submission and, in particular, whether the submission in whole or in part contains information of a confidential nature and no duty of confidence will arise for the Authority in these circumstances.
