NOTICE

Goldfields Gas Pipeline – Quarterly CPI Tariff Adjustment

1 July 2010 to 30 September 2010

Goldfields Gas Transmission Pty Ltd (GGT), the operator of the Goldfields Gas Pipeline (GGP), has notified the Economic Regulation Authority of an adjustment to the reference tariff for the GGP to apply from 1 July 2010 to 30 September 2010. The Economic Regulation Authority has allowed this adjustment. However, it is likely that the reference tariffs will change during this period due to a revised access arrangement for the GGP coming into operation.

On 13 May 2010, the Authority issued its final decision on the GGP proposed revised access arrangement. The final decision, which required 21 amendments, would result in a reduction of around 10% in reference tariffs compared to the current tariffs.

GGT has until 4 June 2010 to respond to the final decision. Following this response, the Authority will issue a further final decision either approving GGT's revisions to the GGP access arrangement or, if these revisions are not approved, issuing and approving its own revisions to this access arrangement.

The reference tariff adjustment, which reflects a 0.9 per cent increase in the Consumer Price Index in the quarter ending March 2010, is shown in Table 1 below. It will apply from 1 July 2010 until replaced by the revised access arrangement for the GGP.

A copy of the GGT's advice to the Authority, dated 4 May 2010, is available on the Authority's website.
