CORRIGENDA AND AMENDED WATER COMPLIANCE REPORTING MANUAL

The Economic Regulation Authority has approved the publication of the Corrigenda – Water Compliance Reporting Manual (corrigenda) and the amended Water Compliance Reporting Manual (manual).

The most recent version of the manual was published in March 2009. The corrigenda describes the changes that have been made to the manual, which include:

- the reclassification of two compliance obligations from 'Not Reportable' to 'Type 2' (Type 2 classification denotes that annual reporting is required);
- the removal of the redundant provisions relating to incident reporting;
- the clarification and streamlining of the procedures for annual performance and compliance reporting; and
- miscellaneous amendments and restructuring of the document to improve legibility.

Copies of the corrigenda and manual are available on the Authority's website.
