Office of Energy Consultation Extended - Proposed Amendments to the Electricity Networks Access Code 2004

The Office of Energy has extended the deadline for submissions on the amendments to the Electricity Networks Access Code 2004 (Access Code) requested by Western Power.

The Office of Energy released an issues paper detailing the proposed amendments to the Access Code in July 2011. These amendments relate to the recovery of an amount of deferred revenue (allowed under Western Power's access arrangement) and an increase in the percentage of distribution system target revenue that can be recovered under the headworks provisions of the Access Code.

A copy of the issues paper is available on the Office of Energy's website.

The consultation period for the issues paper has been extended and now closes at 5pm Western Standard Time on Wednesday, 31 August 2011.

Submissions and comments on the issues paper should be in either printed or electronic form and addressed to:
