Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee

MEETING OF 6 MARCH 2013

The Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee (ERACCC) was established in 2005 and comprises a diverse range of members representing the interests of a wide range of consumers. The ERACCC exists to provide input to the ERA and to act as an information distribution channel for the ERA for the benefit of Western Australian consumers.

The ERACCC held its first meeting for the year on 6 March 2013. The following presentations were made at the meeting:

The smart meter experience: Customer and network benefits from smart meters and associated technologies – The ERACCC received a presentation on customer and network benefits from smart meters and associated technologies from Mr Mike Davidson, Western Power.

Inquiry into the Efficient Costs and Tariffs of the Water Corporation, Aqwest and the Busselton Water Board - The ERACCC received a presentation on the Inquiry into the Efficient Costs and Tariffs of the Water Corporation, Aqwest and the Busselton Water Board from Mr Bill Scanlan, ERA.

2011/12 Annual Performance Report – Energy Retailers – The ERACCC received a presentation on the 2011/12 Annual Performance Report – Energy Retailers from Mr Paul Reid, ERA.

More information about ERACCC is available on the ERA website.

The ERACCC will next meet on 5 June 2013.
