Gas Marketing Code Consultative Committee

Call for expressions of interest

The Economic Regulation Authority is calling for expressions of interest from industry and consumer groups to join the Gas Marketing Code Consultative Committee.

The Committee provides the ERA with advice on the Gas Marketing Code of Conduct. The Code regulates and controls the conduct of retailers and gas marketing agents that supply and market gas to residential and non-residential small use customers (those customers who consume no more than one terajoule of gas per year).

Under the Energy Coordination Act 1994, the Committee must review the Code and provide advice to the ERA every two years. The next review of the Code will commence in October 2020.

The ERA seeks three people from industry or industry organisations, and three people from consumer organisations.

The membership term will be for the period 1 October 2020 to 30 September 2022. Members may be eligible for travel reimbursement and sitting fees.

A copy of the Committee's terms of reference is available on the ERA website.

Expressions of interest using the form available on the ERA website, should be provided by 10 August 2020 to:
