Electricity, Gas and Water Industry Licensing Compliance Policy

The Economic Regulation Authority has approved its Electricity, Gas and Water Industry Licensing Compliance Policy.

The policy provides Authority staff and licensees guidance on the procedures the Authority will follow when a compliance enforcement issue arises.

The objectives of this policy include:

- indicating to licensees, consumers and industry how the Authority may make decisions on enforcement action;
- guiding decision making and action by the Authority's representatives in the use of enforcement options;
- ensuring consistency of compliance arrangements between the electricity, gas and water sectors; and
- providing an outline of the general compliance provisions in the existing legislation.

A copy of the policy is available on the Authority's web site.
